Terms and Conditions

- By consenting on this form, you agree to allow your periodic Celcom bills to be charged either automatically and/or manually billed into the nominated Credit or Charge Card account for settlement as per standing instructions from you or the Card Issuer. You hereby authorise Celcom to forward your call transactions, billings and other details to the Acquiring Bank, the Card Issuer and relevant party for and in connection with the Auto Billing service.
- The Credit/Charge Card must be locally issued.
- In the event you dispute the Auto Billing transaction in your card statement, then such dispute must be notified to Celcom within six (6) months from the transaction date. The charges shall be final and conclusive in the event such discrepancy is not reported within the stipulated time.
- You hereby agree that the use of Auto Billing is undertaken at your sole risk. Celcom shall not be liable for, and you agree to indemnify Celcom against all claims, losses, liabilities proceedings, demands, costs and expenses (including legal fees) which may result or which Celcom may sustain in connection with or arising from the provision of the Auto Billing service to you.
- The monthly rebate on current month payment will only be given and reflected in the following month's bill if current month payment is successful via Auto Billing.
- The monthly rebate is only applicable for customers who are not enjoying any other Auto Billing related rebate and who are on a Celcom Exec postpaid plan, any Celcom Broadband package (except for notebook and netbook bundles) or a Celcom Biz Account that is paid for by the individual customer.
